

Scholars Program

In the U.S. a mere 5% of the physician workforce are Black.

To address this shortage and increase the diversity of the medical workforce, the Howard University College of Medicine Center of Excellence (HUCOM CoE) aims to support Black Students to:

- successfully apply to medical school, and
- to successfully matriculate from medical school into a career in medicine.

Why participate?

Benefits of participating in the HUCOM CoE program, Includes:

- Financial Assistance for MCAT
  - Medical School Application Fees
  - USLME 1&2 Application Fees
  - ERAS
- Student Mentoring and Advising
- Access to a Variety of Experiential Paid Learning Experiences
- Practice-Based Training in Private and Community-Based Settings
- Students Summer Research Opportunities on Health Disparities, Health Equity, and Social Determinants of Health, Etc.
- Access to Virtual Enrichment Curriculum

Who can apply?

Any Black Undergraduate, Graduate or Medical Student Enrolled in College.

How to apply?

Visit us at: <https://www.huttc.org/>

Email us at: huttc@howard.edu

Calling All
Black Students
Currently Enrolled in a Degree
Granting Program Interested in a Medical Career!

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under grant number, D34HP45721-01-01, Center of Excellence Program, award amount $3,430,000 with 0 percent financed with non-governmental sources. The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement, by HRSA, HHS, or the U.S. Government. For more information, please visit HRSA.gov