

Minority Serving
Institution Fellowship
Call for Applications
Deadline: Wednesday,
May 11, 2022

The American Evaluation Association \(AEA\) is now seeking applications from those interested in participating in the Minority-Serving Institution \(MSI\) Faculty Initiative. This initiative will bring a cohort of faculty from MSIs* together throughout the 2022-2023 academic year to participate in orientation, webinars, and the AEA annual conference.

We seek faculty members from groups traditionally under-represented in the applied social sciences, public health, or education working at a Minority Serving Institution* who are looking for an opportunity to participate in professional development opportunities, expand their professional network, and improve their knowledge and understanding of topics related to evaluation, assessment, and applied research.

Program Goals: The goals of the program are to help faculty at MSIs to:

1. Enhance the evaluation activities and/or curriculum in their departments or universities
2. Orient students to evaluation as a career/profession
3. Disseminate information about evaluation and AEA to colleagues

4. Expand their knowledge of evaluation; and
5. Encourage collaborative writing projects that reflect cross-disciplinary ideals

MSI Fellow Informational
Webinar
Wednesday, April 13, 2022
11:00 AM ET

Join MSI Program Director Art Hernandez, AEA, and former Fellows as they discuss the program experience and answer your questions. This is an excellent opportunity to get an inside perspective on what it is like to participate as a MSI Fellow and the program expectations.
